To enclaves of young converts tucked away in the mountains of Asia Minor, Paul wrote what is perhaps the oldest document in the New Testament--the letter to the Galatians. What problems were they facing? Among a variety of religious authorities espousing different teachings, how were they to know who was right? How were men and women to be put right with God? How could Christians in the midst of a pagan culture live lives truly pleasing to God? 'Only one way--' answered Paul, 'through Jesus Christ.' His answer holds true for us as well. The details of our struggle have changed since Paul's day, but the principles he sets forth are as timeless as the Lord he exalts. In this book John Stott help us to understand and apply the message of Galatians in the face of contemporary challenges to our faith. Have you ever wondered what it means to truly be one in the body of Christ? Have you ever been told you have to accomplish works to be saved? What exactly does it mean to put on the new man? Would you say that you love unconditionally, or do you have a critical spirit? These are just a few of the questions Norma Blackmon addresses in her book, A Bible Study in the Books of Galatians and Ephesians. She takes an in-depth look at each chapter of these two books of the New Testament and guides readers, whether new Christians or struggling saints, with questions that encourage them to examine their own faith. With practical applications of the teachings found in

Galatians and Ephesians, Norma shows readers that God's Word gives every precept, every nudge, and every opportunity to receive every ounce of grace and faith needed to live a life that is holy and pleasing to Him. All we have to do is open the Bible, and God will open our hearts. Norma Blackmon is a lifelong resident of San Bernardino, California. She and her husband, Tony, have three grown children and five grandchildren. Norma's love For The Lord has kept her active in church ministries, and her passion for God and sharing His Word just gets stronger every year, which is why she wrote this study. "John Phillips writes with enthusiasm and clarity, . . . cutting through the confusion and heretical dangers associated with Bible interpretation." —Moody magazine

Featuring celebrated authors and teachers, like Margaret Feinberg and Jada Edwards, each guide is a creative and illumination journey through one book of the Bible. What is the purpose of Scripture? The answer is to bring us to Christ our Savior. What is the work of God the Holy Spirit? The answer is to guide and show us the truth. How do we interpret God's Word? The answer is to compare Scripture with Scripture. Unity, how do we achieve it? The answer is to listen as we read what God the Holy Spirit says. How do we learn? The answer is by asking the questions that God gave to all mankind: who, what, where, when, how, and why. So what does our Bible have to say about this? Second Timothy 3:16-17, the Bible is inspired by God, and 2 Timothy 2:15: "We are to study like a worker to be able to rightly divide the Word of TRUTH." I believe Hebrews 11:6 sums it up: "But without faith it is impossible to please HIM, for he who comes to GOD must believe that HE is, and that HE is a rewarder of those who diligently seek HIM." As you read this book, please do not miss these two points: God decided how He would build His house before He created time, and that our adoption is not speaking of our new birth but rather of our new life—that time in our future when we receive our new spiritual body—this is our inheritance. In His kingdom, we will no longer have sin in us. The Cornerstone Biblical Commentary provides students, pastors, and laypeople with up-to-date, evangelical scholarship on the Old and New Testaments.
